CHAPTER IV

BUSINESS REGULATIONS AND LICENSES

Sec. 4-1. Unlawful to transact Business Without A License. It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in or to carry on any business, trade, profession or calling for the transaction or carrying on for which a license is required, or to operate a vending pin ball or other coin operated machine, without first taking out or procuring the license required herein for such business, profession, trade, calling or machine. (10-8-4).

Sec. 4-2. Paid in Advance. Application. How License Issued. Record. All applications for license specified in this chapter shall be made in writing to the town clerk and the amount as hereinafter provided shall be paid in advance to the town treasurer. All licenses shall be issued by the town clerk and attested under the seal of the town and signed by the town president and the town clerk. The clerk shall keep an alphabetical list of the licenses issued, stating the number, name of applicant, time, place and kind of business, and the amount paid, with such remarks as may be considered necessary.

Sec. 4-3. What License Shall Contain. Assignment. Every such license shall specify by name the person, firm or corporation to whom issued, and shall designate the particular place at which business shall be carried on or the vending or other coin operated machine to which it applies. No license granted or issued under the provisions of this chapter, or otherwise, shall be in any manner assignable or transferable, or authorize any person other than is mentioned or named therein to do business or authorize any other business than is therein mentioned or named to be done or transacted.

at any other place than is therein mentioned or named, unless by permission of the Town Board.

Sec. 4-4. No Rebate Allowed. Exception. No rebate shall be allowed upon any license unless the licensee has been damaged by fire or other unavoidable accident; or unless in case of affliction or poverty. In all cases the board shall have discretionary power as to what, if any, amount shall be rebated.

Sec. 4-5. Free License. When May Be Given. If any person shall furnish such evidence as shall satisfy the town board that he, by reason of misfortune or physical infirmities, merits exemption from the payment of any license herein required, the town President may remit such license upon the recommendation the Town Board.

Sec. 4-6. Assessment. The Town Clerk of Wendover is hereby designated and appointed as the ex-officio assessor of license taxes for the town of Wendover. Upon receipt of any application for a license, the town clerk shall assess the amount due thereupon and shall mail notice of such assessment to the applicant at the address shown upon the application, and shall state in the notice of assessment the date upon which the amount assessed shall become due.

Sec. 4-7. Failure to Pay License. Penalty. If any person shall neglect, fail or refuse to pay the amount assessed when it becomes due on any license mentioned or provided for in this chapter, for a period of 30 days after the date on which said license becomes due and payable, a penalty of ten per cent of the amount due on such license shall be added to the original amount, and the same shall be collected and the payment thereof enforced by the town treasurer.

Sec. 4-8. Amount Of License Fee To Be Fixed By Resolution. The Town Board shall by resolution fix the amount of license fees and the terms and conditions thereof, copies of which shall be available for public inspection at the office of the town clerk.

Sec. 4-9. Revocation Of License. The Town Board shall have power to revoke the license of any person, firm or corporation for cause as provided by law. Licenses issued under the provisions of this chapter may be revoked by action of the Town Board because of failure upon the part of licensee to comply with the conditions and requirements under which said license is granted or because of illegal activities thereunder.

No license shall be so revoked nor any application for license under the provisions of this chapter denied except after notice to hearing of the licensee or applicant.

If at any time a license under the provisions of this chapter is denied or revoked it shall thereafter be unlawful for any person to operate, manage or conduct any business, trade, profession or coin operated machine for the transaction or operation of which a license is required until a new license is granted by the Town Board.
